DEMOCRATS TO HOLD STATE PRIMARY

CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR AND OTHER OFFICES TO BE NAMED BY THE PEOPLE.

At a meeting of the Democratic State Executive Committee held in Louisville, on last Thursday, a call was issued for a primary for the nomination of candidates for state offices, said primary to be held on May 27th. The call states that the primary shall be fair for every candidate, and provides that the county committee shall name the election officers, but if any candidate feels that he is slighted, he may obtain redress from the State Executive Committee itself. Messrs. A. G. Rees, of Russellville, M. J. Meagher, of Frankfort and Will A. Young, of Moreland, three splendid democrats, were appointed as a sub-committee to have charge of arrangements.

Candidates for various offices appeared before the committee and most of them declared in favor of a convention. Senator James B. McCreary said that he was willing to have either but preferred to have no question of the governorship set directly by the people themselves. Congressman Ben Johnson, who is still quite a reputation for his colorful speeches, wanted a convention very badly, probably being afraid to trust his chances to the people, fearing the manipulation of a small group of professional politicians.

The action of the committee is believed to be a great victory for McCreary, for it is generally conceded that before the people for a governor, it is better than any other can do. It is believed that McCreary and Johnson will be the only ones to go to the polls for the governorship nomination in the primary as candidates. Messrs. Adams and Hendrick are too little known to have any hold upon the people. With these two in the race, McCreary will win the nomination by 50,000 or more majority and win for governor over whomsoever the republicans may nominate, by 25,000. The people of this state are for him and in a primary the people will rule, as they should.

For the first time in the history of Kentucky a great state poultry show is to be held. By the efforts of M. C. Rankin, Commissioner of agriculture, the Kentucky Poultry Association termed some months since and it will hold its first annual show of poultry fair at Lexington on January 16 to 21 next. Premium list and catalogue will be ready for distribution January 1st, and will be sent to anyone on application to Secretary Frank A. Smith, Lexington, Ky.

TO THE INTERIOR JOURNAL READERS

Following its usual custom, there will be no Interior Journal issued on next Friday, the 30th.

The "force" will be given the opportunity of enjoying a Christmas holiday; or as much enjoyment as we can get out of the process of moving the office fixtures, machinery, etc., from the building which has been occupied by the I. J., for the past twenty-five years or so, to the Hopper store room on Main street, directly across from the court house and next door to the postoffice.

This change of quarters has been made necessary by the installation of the Interior Journal's new electric press, which is so large and so heavy that it would be unsafe to place it in an upstairs room with no more than the ordinary floor supports beneath it. This press is the very highest type made, and will enable the I. J., to compete, out in seven column form to the page, and afford room for much more reading matter for our patrons.

There are, moreover, a great many other advantages in being in the upstairs store room, with all its obvious. The office is hard to get to by those who wish to pay their subscriptions and bring in ads or job work. Many ladies and elderly people hesitate to climb the long flight of stairs, and the noise of our engines and jarring of our press has become unbearable to our good neighbors below, the Lincoln County National Bank and Mr. Sam Robinson. They have been unusually patient with us, and we are highly appreciative of the forbearance they have manifested in a very unpleasant situation.

The Interior Journal hopes to issue its next number, January 3rd, 1911 from its new quarters. As its machinery is moved, and things running properly, it will issue an invitation for its readers and the public in general to pay it a visit on some pleasant day, and see in operation what is beyond doubt the best equipped country newspaper office in the State of Kentucky.

Notwithstanding the fact that the Interior Journal in its new form will give four more columns of matter each issue, and regardless of the cost and increase in the price of white paper, and, in fact, everything that goes into the make-up of a news paper, the price of the Interior Journal will remain at one dollar per year. With the new year however, a new rule will be adopted that every subscription must be paid for strictly in advance. When a subscriber's time expires, he or she will be notified, and will be expected to pay promptly if the paper is desired for another year. If payment is not made promptly after notification, the paper will be stopped. The great loss on unpaid subscriptions and the increasing cost of materials, makes such a rule necessary if the price is to be kept at $1 a year. There are very few papers in the state, which issue twice a week for $1 a year, but this rate will continue for the I. J., as long as its subscribers come in regularly with that one little "wheel".

The I. J. hopes that every reader had a merry Christmas and wishes all a happy New Year.

SIX COUPLES VERY JOYFUL ON XMAS

USUAL HOLIDAY HAPPINESS AUGMENTED BY WEDDED BLISS.

Six young couples sought Christmas happiness in the blissful bonds of wedlock just before the happy Yuletide event, making the occasion when everyone is supposed to be happy, a particularly joyful occasion for them.

Melvin Kidd, and Miss Murray King, aged 22 and 18 respectively, and a prominent and popular young couple of the Wynneburg section, secured license here and were united in marriage on the 13th at the home of William Kidd, the bride's father.

J. L. Cooper and Miss Maggie McWhorter, were joined in wedlock's holy bonds on the 21st. The groom is a prominent young man of the McKinney section, while his bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. McWhorter. A host of friends wish them every happiness.

The next wedding was that of Sam Tarter, a prominent Casey county farmer and Miss Frances Reed. They were married on the 22d at the home of the bride's father George W. Reed in the Green river section, and received the hearty congratulations of a wide circle of friends.

Robert Kelley, a well known and liked young boye farmer and Miss Lela Roberts, one of Lincoln's popular and attractive daughters were married at the home of Mr. J. A. Roberts on the 23d, in the presence of friends and loved ones.

George White, a substantial farmer of Crab Orchard section and Miss Mary Little Cummins, also of the east end and a member of a prominent family, were married at the home of Thomas Pence on Christmas day. Their many friends wish them every happiness.

County Judge Bailey said the words which made Fred McCreary, a well known carpenter and Miss Hattie Stuart, both of the East End, one of the most popular young men of the county, both are popular with all who know them and have had wishes for complete happiness.

Goes to Probate

THE CONTEST WAS MADE AGAINST MRS. HELM'S WILL.

The will of Mrs. Bernetta Helm, who died in the West End a few weeks ago, was ordered to probate by Judge Bailey last week, after a spirited legal contest over it. Contest was made against the probating of the will by Capt. Thomas P. Helm, of Danville and Mrs. Ollie Thurman, children of the deceased, who claim that the document did not make an equal and fair distribution of the property of the deceased.

The will left the bulk of Mrs. Helm's estate to her son, Sam Helm, with whom she had made her home for many years, but provided that pay to each of her other children, the sum of $500. The estate left by Mrs. Helm is said to be valued at about $6,000.

At a retrial in the county court last week of the case of Mrs. Walter Warren against Ed Hubbard, charged with assault and battery, a jury acquitted Hubbard in the first trial the jury had been unable to agree.

FORMER LINCOLN GIRL NOW A DUCHESS

MRS. PAYNE, NEE TATE, MARRIED TO FRENCH DUKE—HER ROMANCE.

The city papers for the past several days have had lengthy articles concerning the marriage of Mrs. Charles Hamilton, formerly Miss Lucy Tate of this city, to the Duke of Choiseul-Praslin in France. Col. W. P. Walton, editor of the Lexington Herald, who knew her well, while he re-rediscovered as editor of the Interior Journal, writes this sketch of the new Duchess in a recent issue of the Herald.

The dispatches tell of the recent marriage in Europe of Kentucky woman, whose life has been full of romance than the most imaginative novelists ever conceived. Miss Lucy Tate, born in Liberty, Casey county is now a Duchess, realizing the ambition of her girlhood to be a member of royalty. As a young girl the writer knew her as very handsome, of splendid figure and unusually bright mind and great beauty of manner. Her father, the late William P. Tate, who was a merchant accumulated a good fortune for that section and moved to Stanford, with his only daughter about the time she was budding into young womanhood, and she soon became a social favorite.

Possessed of much music talent, her father sent her to Boston to improve it, and she entered a conservatory there. During her stay at the "Hub" she became acquainted with Mr. Charles Hamilton Payne, a man of fine family and a member of a brokerage firm in that city. It was a case of love at first sight and after a reasonable period of courtship they were married in Stanford the writer witnessing the beautiful ceremony.

The happy couple were soon at home, in Mr. Payne's palatial house in Boston, and Mrs. Payne became a leader of society in that city. Mr. Payne was a fine business man and recognizing in those days the possibilities of the copper industry, invested largely in it with the result that he became a five-millionaire. Yielding to the desire of his wife to go to Paris to live, Mr. and Mrs. Payne went thither and one of the most beautiful villas was purchased. They were soon sought after by those worth while, and royal people were frequent visitors to the magnificent home. Three girls blessed the union and love seemed to fill the hearts of the couple with continual gladness.

Last year Mr. Payne had business in this country, which required his attention, and he came over. While in Boston and sitting at a restaurant table where he and his brother had gone to lunch and while the brother had gone out to answer a telephone call, he fell forward onto the table from a stroke of apoplexy and was a corpse when his brother returned. The blow was a terrible one to the wife, as he had left in perfect health, and as soon as possible she came over to this country and saw her loved husband laid away in the family lot in Boston.

Shortly before Mr. Payne's untimely taking off, he being a great fancier of paintings, bought $200,000 worth of them from a man who represented himself as a count, but who really, as has since been proven, was an impostor, who claimed that the pictures he sold were the work of famous painters. It was afterwards discovered that the paintings were imitations and Mrs. Payne refused to pay the balance due on them. The spurious count brought suit against her, and in order to boost his cause made some reflections on Mrs. Payne, as he thought, she was unprotected in a strange country. Since Mrs. Payne has become the wife of the Duke of Choiseul-Praslin, the scamp will probably not be so forward in making the charge as he did. The trial of the case was set in Paris for yesterday.

Briefly, this is the history of an unassuming, though ambitious, Casey county, Kentucky, girl, who has frequently visited the friend of her girlhood in this city, Mrs. Lee F. Huffman. A writer with the gift of making the details more prominent, might make a novel that would soon become a best seller, for the reason that the story is true and that the heroine is a Kentuckienne born and bred, with little thought when a girl that her life would prove so full of romance and interest. The local flavor has induced us to write this, which tells the real story that has been much distorted by the papers. A brother of the Duchess, Mr. Clarence E. Tate, of

For the past week the numerous tobacco raisers in this vicinity have had the busiest season for two years. All day long load after load comes in from the several roads to this place. The past season acreage was large but the quality not quite up to last year crop. Some few crops have been sold at last year prices and some are holding for more than is generally offered. The offering for the week was about 60,000 pounds the majority of which was two grades. The better grades are being held by many in the hope of better prices.

POPULAR YOUNG MAN SURPRISED FRIENDS

TOM NEWLAND QUIETLY MARRIED TO MISS ADA WHITE MONDAY AT LOUISVILLE

In the presence of a few intimate friends, the ceremony was said Monday afternoon in the parlors of the Willard Hotel at Louisville, which united in the holy bonds of matrimony Mr. Thomas D. Newland, Jr., of this city and Miss Ada White, of Bowling Green.

Mr. Newland had kept the approach long event a profound secret at home and only a few of his most intimate friends were aware of his approaching nuptials. He was accompanied to Louisville by Messrs. Hays Foster and Thurman K. Tudor, who were present at the happy event. His brother-in-law Levi L. C. Kelley, of Elkhorn, Tenn., said the words which united this young pair for life. After a few days spent in Louisville, they will return here to make their home, taking apartments which Mr. Newland has already arranged for his bride on West Main street.

Mr. Newland is one of the best known and most progressive young business men in Stanford. For about ten years he was connected with the firm of Welsh and Wiseman in Danville, but returned home less than a year ago to assist his father in the conduct of their large grocery establishment. He is very popular and will be heartily congratulated on this occasion, for while his bride is known to few people here, she is said to be very attractive and a sweetness of disposition and charm of presence which makes friends of all who come to know her. She will be cordially welcomed to her new home by everyone.

DECLARES AGAINST SPEAKER APPOINTING COMMITTEES.

Congressman Harvey Helm returned home from Washington Saturday to spend the Christmas holidays. Mr. Helm has been highly commended because he was one of the Kentucky members went on record against the new speaker, who will be Champ Clark, of Missouri appointing the committees of the House. Mr. Helm contended that this has been one of the abuses which the democrats charged against Speaker Cannon and the Republican regime. He declared that the democrats should begin on the right lines, by putting the committees directly into the hands of the members.

NOTICE OF SALE

Lincoln Circuit Court. Geo. Burton etc., Plaintiffs, vs. Jas. Burton, etc., Defendants.

In obedience to a judgment rendered in the above styled court and action at the November term, 1910 the undersigned commissioner will on

MILD, GENTLE LAXATIVE
FOR WOMEN GIVEN FREE

So many of the ills of women are due to habitual constipation, probably because of their false modesty on the subject, that their attention cannot be too strongly called to the importance of keeping the bowels open. It is always important to do that, regardless of the sex, but it is especially important in women.

From the time the girl begins to menstruate until menopause ceases she has always vastly better prospects of coming through healthy if she watches her bowel movements. If you find yourself constipated, with bad breath, pimply complexion, headaches, belching gas and other symptoms of indigestion and constipation, take a small dose of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a woman's favorite laxative. You will find that you can do away with salts, strong cathartics, etc., which are entirely unsuited to woman's requirements.

Mrs. Katherine Haberstroh of McKees Rocks, Pa., and Mrs. A. E. Herrick of Wheeler, Mich., who was almost paralyzed in her stomach and bowels, are cured by the use of this remedy. A free sample bottle can be obtained by addressing Dr. Caldwell, and after you are convinced of its merits buy it of your druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle.

Dr. Caldwell does not feel that the purchase of his remedy ends his obligation. He has specialized in stomach, liver and bowel diseases for over forty years and will be pleased to give the reader any advice on the subject free of charge. All are welcome to write him. Whether for the medical advice or the free sample address him Dr. W. R. Caldwell, 602 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

For Circuit Judge
The Interior Journal is authorized to announce Charles A. Hardin as a candidate for Circuit Judge of the Thirteenth Judicial district, at the election to be held November, 1911, subject to the action of the Democratic State Executive Committee.

The people and not the professional politicians are going to name the next governor of Kentucky. The action of the Democratic State Executive Committee in calling a primary to name the party's candidates to be voted for next year, means that the man the democracy of the state considers the strongest to lead them in redeeming the state from republicanism will be at the head of the next state ticket, and not the man whom he bosses think they can handle the best, as might have been the case had a convention been called.

Senator McCreary was willing to trust his chances with either a primary or convention, but his friends and supporters knew the hold he had in the affection of the democracy of the state, and the question put directly to the people. Ben Johnson made a hard fight for convention, evidently afraid to go against the Warhorse of Madison before the people. Mr. Johnson, the great "organizer" has shot his bolt, and while he may go to the post in the primary, he will be overwhelmed by McCreary before the democracy of the state. It was simply a case of professional politicians against the people, and for once the people are going to have their way.

SO DECEPTIVE

Many Stanford People Fail to Realize the Seriousness.

Backache is so deceptive. It comes and goes—keeps you guessing.

Learn the cause—then cure it. Nine times out of ten it comes from the kidneys.

That's why Doan's Kidney Pills cure it.

Cure every kidney ill from backache to diabetes.

We present the following case as proof.

Thomas Elkin, Danville Street Lancaster, Ky., says: "I suffered many years I was a sufferer from kidney complaint and I had such severe pains in the small of my back that I was hardly able to get about. The many remedies I used failed to help until upon the advice of a friend, I procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills in a short time after beginning their use, I improved and it was not long until I was restored to perfect health. For the great change in my condition I give Doan's Kidney Pills the credit and I recommend them as a reliable kidney remedy."

A WOMAN'S GREAT IDEA.

Is how to make herself attractive. But without health, it is hard for her to be lovely in face, form or temper. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation and Kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. But Electric Bitters always prove a godsend to women who want health, beauty and friends. They regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, and purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth velvety skin, lovely complexion, good health. Try them 50 cents at Penny's Drug Store.

A sprained ankle will usually disable the injured person for three or four weeks. This is due to lack of proper treatment. When Chamberlain's Liniment is applied a cure may be effected in three or four days. This liniment is one of the best and most remarkable preparations in use. Sold by Penny's Drug Store.

NOTICE OF SALE

Lincoln Circuit Court, Ellis Taylor Bodine, etc., Plaintiffs vs. Elton Taylor, Defendant.

In obedience to a judgment of the Lincoln Circuit Court rendered in the above styled cause at its November term, 1911, the undersigned commissioner will on,

Monday January 9th 1911, County court day at 1 o'clock P. M., in front of the court house door in Stanford, Ky., sell at public outcry to the highest and best bidder on a credit of six months, the following described real estate in Lincoln County, Kentucky, to-wit:

Tract No. 1—Near Hustonville, Ky., beginning in the center of the Hustonville and Stanford turnpike road, Yowell's corner, thence S 71 1/2 W 65 poles to a stone, in the center of said pike adjacent to the Presbyterian school house lot, thence S 22 1/2 N 18 poles and 12 links to the center of the Hanging Fork, thence, down said creek N 70 E 31 poles to the center of the old road thence with said road S 65 E 10 poles 10 links S 65 1/2 E 13 poles 1/2 links S 64 1/2 E 24 poles 23 links to a stone in two south side of said road, thence N 72 1/2 E 45 poles to a stone in said road thence N 29 E 39 poles 17 links to the bed of the creek, thence N 72 1/2 E 9 poles 20 links to the north bank of said creek, thence North 20 1/4 W 54 poles to a stone center of Hustonville and Stanford pike, thence, with said road to the beginning, containing 50 acres, more or less.

Tract No. 2—A tract situated in said county and state, and adjacent to the above tract, described as follows, beginning at the corner of the above described tract in the creek and running S 35 E 3 poles 3 links to a stake, thence N 72 E 33 poles 22 links to the center of the road, thence N 65 1/2 W 6 poles and 8 links to Allen corner, S 70 W 30 poles 17 links to the beginning, containing 2 rods and 32 poles of land. These two tracts of land will first be offered separately and then as a whole and the bid accepted which realizes the most money. The purchaser will be required to give bond with personal security payable to the Court and approved by him, the same bearing six per cent. interest from date of sale, having the force and effect of a judgment and secured by lien on the land.

GEO. D. FLORENCE, M. C. L. C. C. J. N. SAUNDERS, Atty. for Plffs.

TAKE CARE!

Remember that when your kidneys are affected, your life is in danger. M. Mayer, Rochester, N. Y., says: "My trouble started with a sharp shooting pain over my back which grew worse daily. I felt sluggish and tired my kidney action was irregular and infrequent. I started using Foley's Kidney Pills. Each dose seemed to get more life and strength into me and now I am completely cured and feel better and stronger than for years."
